Welcome Rev. Maxwell Michaels

Call to Worship

We come to worship God as the Lenten season begins, aware of our frailty and our failings.

We come seeking God's mercy, acknowledging our mortality.

Having received the waters of baptism,

we come to be marked now with ashes.

May we humble ourselves before God not with a yoke of burden but a mantle of freedom in Jesus' name.

WELCOME TO OUR ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH! We gather this evening to worship our Lord Jesus Christ, and to begin the journey of Lent together.

We want to thank Leigh Montique for leading us in worship this evening.

You may receive the imposition of ashes at the end of this service. Simply come forward when the minister summons you and receive the sign of the cross upon your forehead. Whether you receive this sign tonight or not, please go out to follow Jesus Christ, Savior and Lord, more closely in the season of Lent, and all seasons to follow. Remember: for Presbyterians, Lent is not the season to give up something, but to take on something, in ministry for and with our Lord Jesus Christ.
